Timeline

History

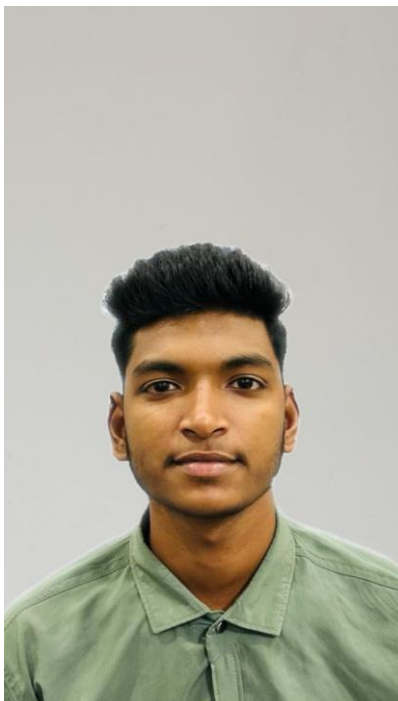

Mr. Sohag Rohman, a self-motivated youth returned from expatriate life, to do something in his own country. He wanted to start agro-farming, but he had no skills or experience. Then he opened a small clothing shop in New Market in Faridpur instead of agriculture. He sold jerseys and t-shirts. Simultaneously he was getting orders to provide these products in customized designs. After a few months, Mr. Sohag Rohman took another shop named 'SM Printing' and set up some machines for printing on jerseys and t-shirts.

At the time of the COVID-19 pandemic, Mr. Sohag Rohman becomes jobless. But his brain was working. He shifted his machinery to his home and restarted production, delivering the products to the customers' doorstep.

After the pandemic, He got a work order from a Malaysian buyer. Then Mr. Sohag Rohman set up a small production plant. And he completed the shipment to Malaysia successfully. Now SM Printing become Fustan Emporium Ltd. and Mr. Sohag Rohman become the Managing Director. Since then, Fustan Emporium Ltd. has shipped more than a hundred orders to home and beyond. And become trustworthy to his customers.
